

Conference "Tackling homophobia in education"

June 9th, 2017

Vysoká 2, Bratislava, Austria Trend Hotel

9:30-9:45 Participants registration

Conference room Váh, 1st floor

9:45-10:00 Welcome and introduction note

Alena Krempaská, Human Rights Institute

10:00-11:00 The success of Intercultural education in Lithuania and the process of its institutionalization

Arturas Rudomanskis, Tolerance Youth Association (Lithuania)

11:00 – 12:00 From combating discrimination to evaluating homophobia at schools: The case of Hungary

Bea Sándor, Háttér (Hungary)

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 13:45 Fighting homophobia in Slovak education, lessons learned and ways forward

Peter Weisenbacher, Peter Weisenbacher, Human Rights Institute (Slovakia)

13:45 – 14:30 Experience with tackling homophobia in education

Vyacheslav Melnyk, Campaign Against Homophobia (Poland)

14:30 – 14:45 Coffee Break

14:45 – 16:30 Panel discussion: Fighting homophobia in education

Eduard Kopáček, Queer Network, YES (Czechia), Peter Broniš, Faculty of social and economic sciences (Slovakia), Adam Wiesner, Department of Ethnology, Slovak Academy of Sciences (Slovakia), Aleksandar Gorgiev, Queer Connexion (Austria), Peter Weisenbacher, Human Rights Institute (Slovakia)

16:30 – 17:00 Q&A

17:00-17:15 Closing remarks, Feedback forms

Alena Krempaská, Human Rights Institute

Organized by Inštitút ľudských práv - Human Rights Institute

With financial support by Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung

